A CWH GROUP HOLIDAY TO
LANDOUR. 19 - 23 FEB 2020

THE LANDOUR READING HOLIDAY

Dust off those books you always wanted to read but just didn't get the 'time' to. Get those pair of walking shoes out of their packaging. And let's head to the hills of Garhwal to the beautiful but quiet Landour, just above Mussorie, to an 18th century castle now converted into a boutique hotel. Chilling-out is the motto here. Not the beer and swimming pool type but more like: morning walks, chai-samosa chats, gazing at snow peaks, playing indoor games, eating delicious food and of course reading your favourite books.

TRIP HIGHLIGHTS

- Easy walks around Landour
- Plenty of me time for reading
- Indoor games and stories
- Sumptuous local cuisine
- Crystal clear Himalaya views

A BRIEF OVERVIEW

The place

Deep in the forest of pine and cedar, high above Mussorie lies one of the most exclusive properties in the Himalaya – the Rokeby manor, a fairy tale resort. Great food, great views and a well stocked library with plenty of board games makes it a perfect location.

Doing nothing

I could have called it the 'ultimate chill out' holiday but then reading and short walks are the means we will be chilling out with. You will be amazed how few days of doing nothing, not counting the aimless walks in the forest around, can recharge you, and that is the real aim.

ITINERARY: 5 DAY TRIP, 3 DAYS OFF WORK (1 WEEKEND)

19 FEB	Fly into Dehradun latest by noon.	You can reach Dehradun by train also. We will drive and reach Landour today (~ 2.5 hours) and spend rest of the day getting used to the place and the rhythm of the mountains.
20-22 FEB	We set into a daily pattern for the next three days.	Our daily routine will include short walks, reading time, indoor games, story sessions and of course many food breaks in between.
